

Don't Let High-Cost Lenders Get Around DC's Consumer Protections By Scheming with Out-of-State Banks

In the District of Columbia, OppLoans is making loans at 160% APR
Elevate is making loans named "Elastic" up to an effective 109% APR
Elevate is making loans named "Rise" at 99% to 149% APR
Enova's NetCredit subsidiary is making loans up to 99.99% APR

Compilation by National Consumer Law Center

*In DC, FinWise Bank (Utah) is renting its charter to enable OppLoans and Elevate's "Rise" product;
Republic Bank (Kentucky) is enabling Elevate's "Elastic" product as well as Enova's NetCredit loans.*

A few high-cost lenders are violating long-standing banking principles and evading state consumer protections through rent-a-bank schemes, which are an abuse of banks' charters. Through these sham arrangements, these companies are exploding right through protections states have put in place for good reason, to protect people from high-cost debt traps that drain them of their hard-earned income.
