Don’t Let High-Cost Lenders Get Around Nevada Consumer Protections By Scheming with Out-of-State Banks

In Nevada,
Elevate is making loans named “Elastic” up to an effective APR of 109%
Elevate is making loans named “Rise” at 99% to 149% APR

Compilation by National Consumer Law Center

In Nevada, FinWise Bank (Utah) is renting its charter to enable Elevate’s “Rise” product; Republic Bank (Kentucky) is enabling Elevate’s “Elastic” product.

A few high-cost lenders are violating long-standing banking principles and evading state consumer protections through rent-a-bank schemes, which are an abuse of banks’ charters. Through these sham arrangements, these companies are exploding right through protections states have put in place for good reason, to protect people from high-cost debt traps that drain them of their hard-earned income.
