APR cap with fees on $2,000 2-year installment loans

In Oklahoma, FinWise Bank (Utah) is renting its charter to enable Elevate’s “Rise” product; Republic Bank (Kentucky) is enabling Enova’s NetCredit loans.

A few high-cost lenders are violating long-standing banking principles and evading state consumer protections through rent-a-bank schemes, which are an abuse of banks’ charters. Through these sham arrangements, these companies are exploding right through protections states have put in place for good reason, to protect people from high-cost debt traps that drain them of their hard-earned income.
